

IN-MIGRATION: CULTURAL AND THEOLOGICAL DIALOGUES ON THE 21ST CENTURY MOVEMENTS OF PEOPLES

A series of interdisciplinary conversations which aims to shed new light on the unfolding migration context. In each session, a speaker will make a key input on an aspect of migration, to which scholars associated with the Oxford Centre for Christianity and Culture will offer a response informed by Christian theological reflection and/or practice.

- 16 January      Law in Migration
1pm              Catherine Briddick, Co-Chair, Migrants' Resource Centre; Barrister, and Teaching Assistant, Refugee Studies Centre, University of Oxford
- 23 January      Politics in Migration
5pm              Tariq Ramadan, Professor of Contemporary Islamic Studies, St Antony's College, University of Oxford
- 30 January      Poetry in Migration
1pm              Yousif Qasmiyeh, Poet, and Tutor in Arabic, University of Oxford Language Centre
- 6 February      Bible and Art in Migration
5pm              Casey Strine, Lecturer in Ancient Near Eastern History and Literature, University of Sheffield
- 13 February     Humanitarianism, Gender and Religion in Migration
1pm              Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Reader in Human Geography and Co-Director of the Migration Research Unit, University College, London
- 20 February     Faith-Based Action in Migration
5pm              Shari Brown, Project Co-ordinator, Restore, Birmingham; and Viraj Mendis, Refugee, migrant and sanctuary activist, Bremen, Germany
- 27 February     Interreligion in Migration
1pm              Joshua Ralston, Lecturer in Muslim-Christian Relations, University of Edinburgh
- 6 March          Christian Communities in Migration
5pm              Harvey Kwiyani, Executive Director, Missio Africanus, and Lecturer, Pioneer Mission Leadership Training, Church Mission Society