

Public Lectures

Hilary Term 2015

Religious Diversity and Freedom

(Convenors: Dr Robin Gibbons & Prof Roger Trigg)

- 20 January Some like it hot: towards a Pentecostal-Wahhabi Inter-faith engagement?
Dr Richard McCallum, Centre for Christian-Muslim Studies, Oxford
- 27 January Finding a Voice on Radio and Television
Canon Angela Tilby, Christ Church, Oxford
- 3 February International Law and the Freedom of Religion: Promoting Diversity, producing Division?
Professor Malcolm Evans OBE, University of Bristol
- 10 February Religious Freedom and the European Union: stumbling and falling?
Dr Sean-Oliver Dee, Oxford Centre for Christianity & Culture
- 17 February What Religion can teach Foreign Policy
Francis Campbell, Vice-Chancellor, St Mary's University, Twickenham
- 24 February Middle Eastern Christians in the UK: Narratives on Identity, Integration and Transnational Ties
Dr Fiona McCallam, University of St Andrews
- 3 March Religious Freedom Advocacy in the 21st century: challenges and opportunities
David Taylor, Chair, Christian Solidarity Worldwide
- 10 March Eastern Catholic Perspectives on Religious Freedom in the Middle East and Turkey
Anthony O'Mahony, Director for the Centre for Eastern Christianity Heythrop College, University of London

Wednesday 11 March 2.30-6.00pm: Symposium and Book Launch:

Religious Diversity: Philosophical and Political Dimensions (CUP 2014) by Professor Roger Trigg

Symposium Contributors: Professors Gavin Flood, Werner Jeanrond and Keith Ward

5.00 pm
Regent's Park College