				Admissions data (including student applications and qualifications), examination results, payments of fees and collection of debts. We also provide information about financial support you receive. We also inform the University of any decisions that you tell us about regarding your course, such as options you wish to take, or if you decide to change or withdraw from your course, intermit or suspend your studies. Records of any decisions we make about your wishes, such as whether to allow you to take options, change your course or suspend your studies.
1	Students	University of Oxford	UK	Your data is shared to allow the University and Colleges to work together in providing admissions decisions, making decisions about your course and in administering examinations, assessments and collect fees, and to avoid duplication of effort in areas where the University and Colleges have a common interest. Information about financial support is provided to allow the University to complete its data return to the Higher Education Statistics Agency, which is a regulatory requirement on the University.	No
				We also share data with the University to enable it to comply with its duties as a tier 4 sponsor, for example to verify student attendance in accordance with UKVI requirements.  With your consent, we may also transfer data concerning your health, disabilities or welfare if it is appropriate to make a request to the University (for example to make a reasonable adjustment).
2	Students	Sponsors	UK and overseas	The College will share information with your sponsor(s) in accordance with the terms of relevant contract(s)/agreement with you and your sponsor. This data is likely to relate to attendance and academic progress. This may include international transfer of data where the sponsor is based overseas. Sponsors can be employers, parents or other third parties.	Yes No	Necessary for performance of contract in data subject's interests Transfer within the EU
3	Students	Loan and financial support providers (including the Student Loans Company)	UK and overseas	We share information relating to the payment of student fees with educational loan providers, such as the Student Loans Company, where this is required under the terms of the funding arrangement, or otherwise at your request. This is for the purposes of confirming your identity, enrolment and attendance. We may also be required to share information relating to intermission or illness in order to facilitate financial support. Your data is shared to facilitate payment of tuition fee and maintenance loans and the provision of other financial support including bursaries.  Where you are a recipient of funding originating form overseas bodies, we may be requested or required to provide information to those bodies in relation to you.	Yes No	Adequacy decsion Explicit consent Necessary for performance of contract in data subject's interests Safeguards under Art 49(1) second sub paragraph Transfer within the EU
