

PROGRAMME

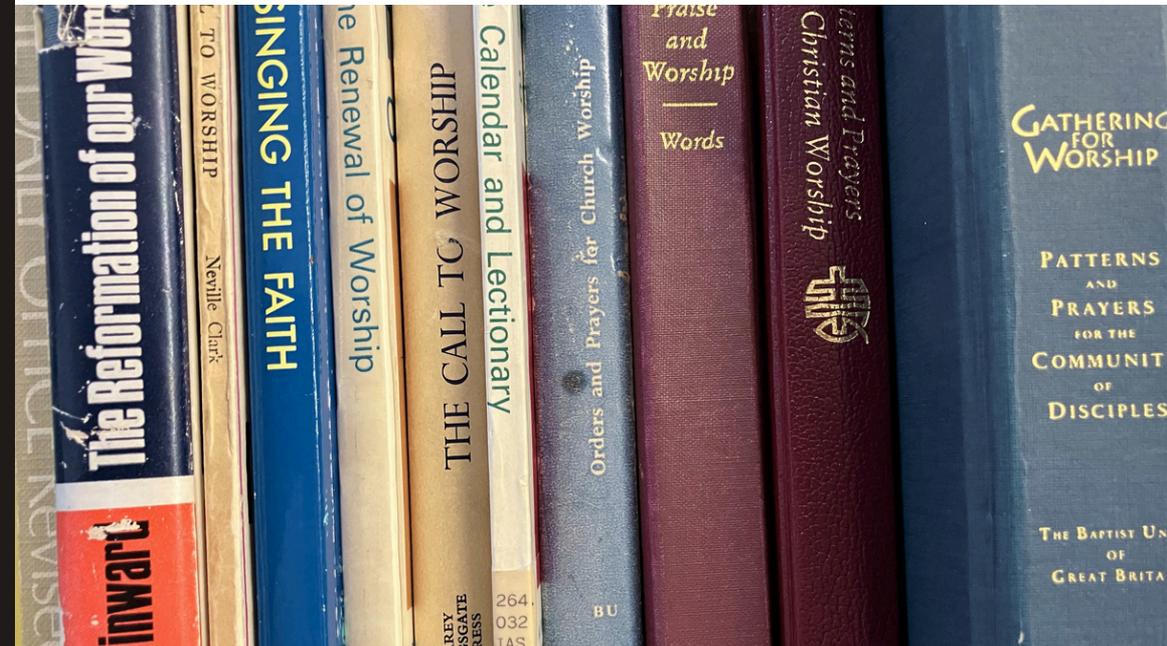

- 10:00 Tea and Coffee on Arrival
- 10:15 Welcome and Introduction
- 10:30 Andy Goodliff - 'Stephen Winward and Neville Clark and the Renewal of Baptist Worship'
- 11:00 Ian Green - 'Amersham Free Church - did the liturgical experiment work?'
- 11:30 Discussion
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Ewan King - 'Animated Bodies : Winward's theology of liturgy in The Reformation of our Worship'
- 13:30 James Henley - 'Performing the Body of Christ: Ecclesial Practices and the Formation of Disciples'
- 14:00 Discussion
- 14:30 Tea break
- 14:45 Angelee Frederick - 'The Contribution of the Jamaican Windrush to British Baptist Worship'
- 15:15 Shona Shaw - 'Where might Winward worship today? A reflection on Winward's vision for Baptist worship in the light of what he might experience today'
- 15:45 Discussion
- 16:15 Close

CENTRE FOR
Baptist Studies

BAPTIST WORSHIP OLD AND NEW: THE LEGACY OF STEPHEN WINWARD

Thursday 5th March 2026

A day conference at Regent's Park College, Oxford jointly organised by the Centre for Baptist Studies and the Baptist Historical Society.

CENTRE FOR
Baptist Studies

About the speakers:

Stephen Winward and Neville Clark and the Renewal of Baptist Worship – Andy Goodliff

Andy is Lecturer in Baptist History at Regent's Park College, Oxford and minister of Belle Vue Baptist Church, Southend. He is the author of Renewing a Modern Denomination (2021), and several other edited books including Ministry in Conversation (2022), Reconciling Rites (2020), and Remembered Sisters (2025).

Andy Goodliff

Amersham Free Church - did the liturgical experiment work? – Ian Green

Ian trained for Baptist ministry at Spurgeon's and later studied for an MTh at Westminster College, Oxford. He has been a Baptist minister in Kettering, Hitchin, Malvern, Yeovil, and since 2012 at Amersham.

Ian Green

Animated Bodies - Winward's theology of liturgy in The Reformation of our Worship – Ewan King

Ewan King is minister of Heath Street Baptist Church, Hampstead. Having trained for ministry at Regent's Park College, he has completed a PhD on Dante at King's College London.

Ewan King

Performing the Body of Christ: Ecclesial Practices and the Formation of Disciples – James Henley

James is a co-minister of Budleigh Salterton Baptist Church in Devon, and is the Learning Community Co-Ordinator in the South West Baptist Association. He has a PhD from Aberdeen, completed at Bristol Baptist College, on the eucharist in the theologies of Paul Fiddes and William Cavanaugh.

James Henley

The Contribution of the Jamaican Windrush to British Baptist Worship – Angelee Frederick Angelee is Associate Minister at Lindsay Park Baptist Church. She studied theology at the University of the West Indies and United Theological College of the West Indies, Jamaica and trained for ministry at Spurgeon's College London.

Angelee Frederick

Where might Winward worship today? A reflection on Winward's vision for Baptist worship in the light of what he might experience today – Shona Shaw

Shona is an academic tutor at St Hild College. She trained for Baptist Ministry at Regent's Park College, completing a PG diploma in Theology and MA in Applied Theology. She has served Baptist Churches in Bradford, Oxford and Leeds and as a Healthcare Chaplain in Wakefield.

Shona Shaw